The Story Behind the 2025 Collection

Wear the Room

Where Texture Meets Tone

This collection started where most great ideas do—somewhere between a sketchpad and a feeling. We imagined furniture that’s not only built for comfort, but alive with character. That plays with materials like a kid with a crayon box, but performs with precision like a designer’s best sketch.

Each piece in this catalogue reflects our obsession with contrasts: soft against strong, stillness wrapped in movement, clean forms brought to life by color, texture, and detail. From hand-trimmed faux fur to printed stone, quilted shell chairs to rippled metal tops—SQUR8 is about layering emotion into structure.

We pulled from the rhythm of landscapes, the energy of sports gear, vintage color blocking, and the language of contemporary art. The result? A collection that feels fresh, playful, sculptural—and unapologetically bold.

This is design made to stand out. To be touched. To be lived with.

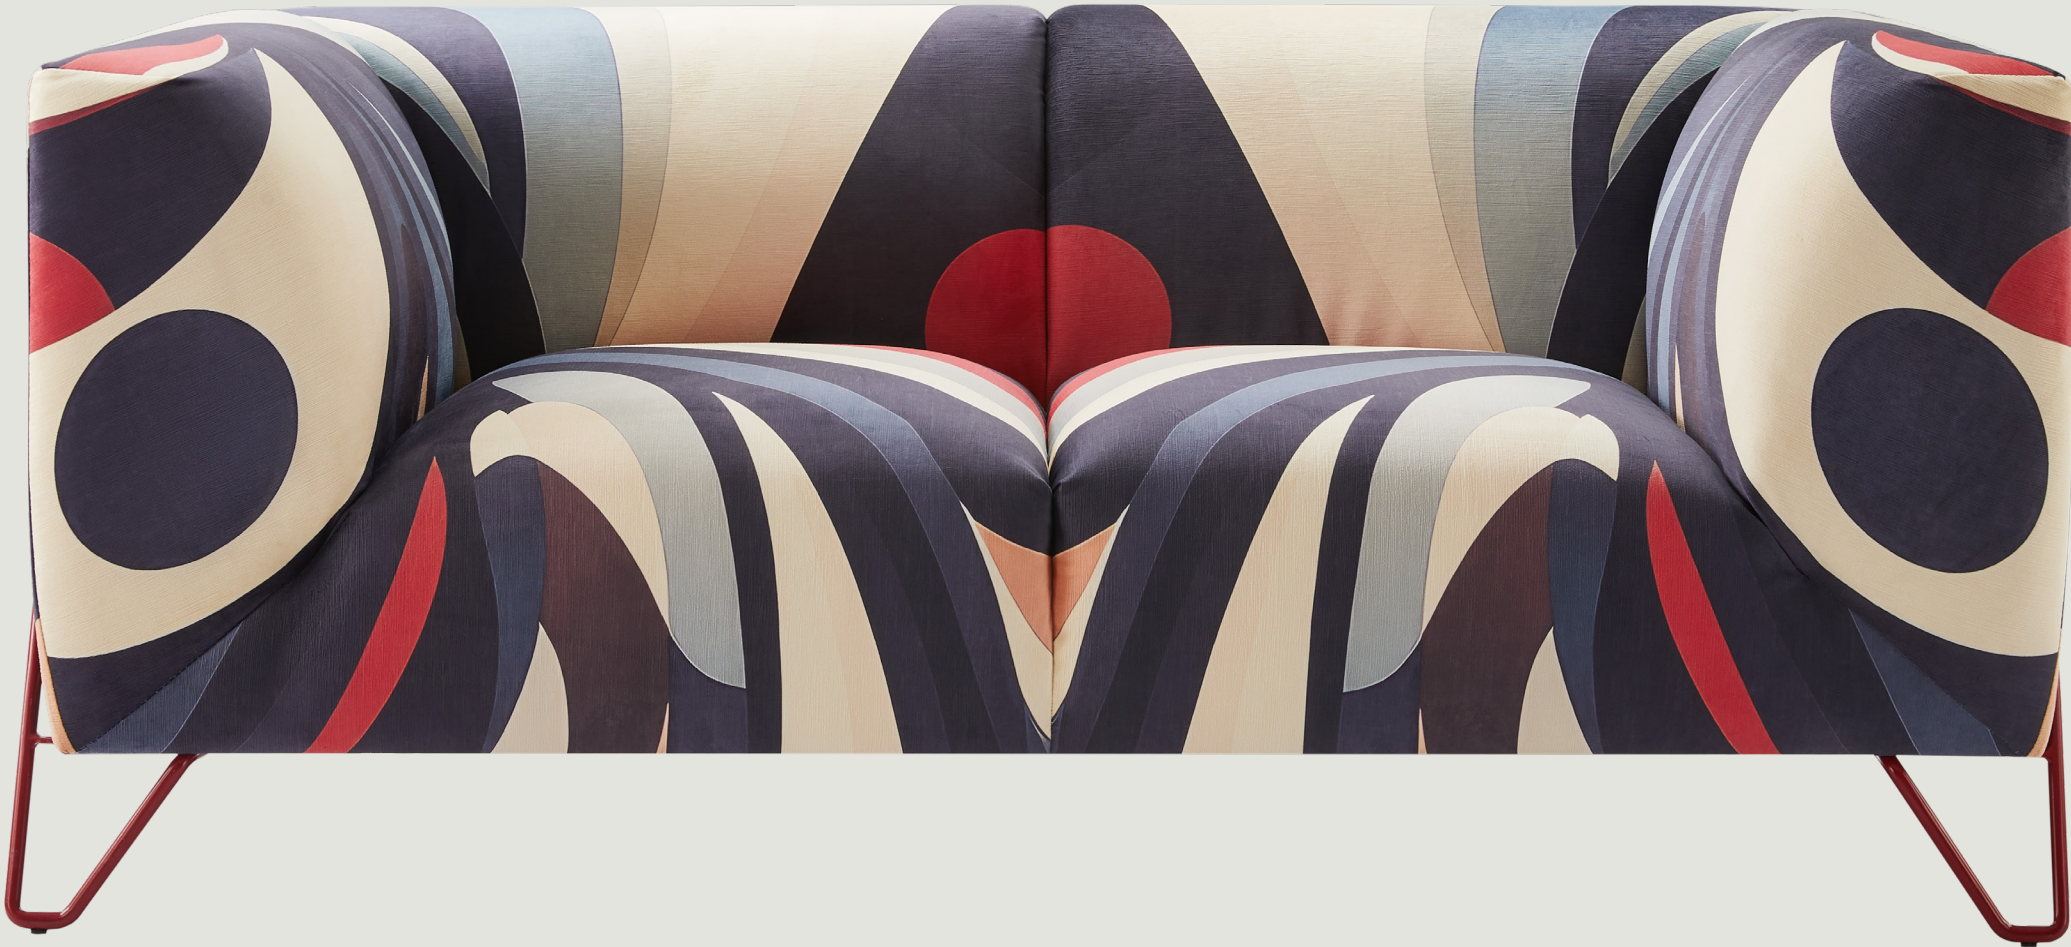

Welcome to SQUR8.

BENJI

Alone is calm, together is joy

The Benji Sofa was designed for both quiet moments and shared company. Its soft, sculptural form offers comfort, while slender red metal legs add a modern lift.

Upholstered in a striking hand-drawn print inspired by tribal geometry and aerial landscapes, Benji brings energy and warmth to any room. Its organic lines and earthy palette make it as much a statement as it is a seat.

Pause, stretch, breathe—it’s your moment

The DOMA Daybed invites rest in its purest form. Its low, architectural frame supports a trio of tactile textures in soft boucle tones—earth green, ivory, and clay—secured by sleek leather straps and flanked by cylindrical leather bolsters.

Minimal yet warm, DOMA brings Japanese restraint and European softness together, making it the perfect piece for slow living, open spaces, or a quiet afternoon escape.
